

Earth Day Writing Challenge

We would love for all participants to join us for this special weekend to celebrate Earth Day and spring! Teachers encourage your students to come early to participate in the following activities:

Earth Day Projects: 2019

11am – 3pm Saturday and Sunday April 27th and 28th in the Westbrook greenhouse

- Earth Day Suncatchers - Free Activity
- Nature Scavenger Hunt - Free Activity
- “Gardens to Go” Miniature egg carton gardens filled with plants & other unique finds - $3

Sunday April 28th at 1:00pm in the Westbrook

Annual Earth Day Writing Challenge Awards Ceremony for winners of poetry and essay contest.

HAPPY EARTH DAY

We encourage all 3rd and 4th grade students to write a poem or essay. The theme is “Working together to create a healthier tomorrow!” Pictures are not required, but students are encouraged to add them if it fits their project theme.

Send your entries to:

Ebert's Greenhouse Village

Attn: Renee Ebert

W1795 Fox Road

Ixonia, WI 53036

Email Renee renee@eberts.com with any questions!

Due April 20th. Early entries (by April 6th) will receive an edible garden to grow in their classroom!

First place in each division will receive $20

Second place - $15

Third place - $10

Honorable mention will receive a 4" plant of their choice for their garden

Participates of the writing challenge that attend the awards ceremony may do earth day activities free of charge

We appreciate your participation!